Madhuramangalam Temple & Village :

Maduramangalam Mutt & Temple is located near Sunguvar Chaththiram, near Sri Perumbudhur, the birth place of Bagavath Ramanujacharya. Madhuramangalam is the birth place / avathara sthalam of Sri Embar (Govinda Bhattar), cousin brother of Swami Ramanujacharya. Madhuramangalam is referred to as dakshina madhura (then madhura), lord sri krishna took avatharam in vada madhura, whereas, Sri Embar Swamy, amsam of Garudaalzwam took birth in then madhura.

The temple at Maduramangalam is more than a 1000 years old majestic temple housing the divine sannidhis, for Sri Kamalavalli Thaayar Sametha Sri Vaikunta Perumal and Sri Embar Swamy, is located next to the holy pushkarini (fresh water pond) full of colorful lotus flowers. 108 such puskarinis are found in and around madhuramangalam. The main utsavams celebrated are the Brahmotsavam in the Tamil month of Chithirai and the Embaar avatara utsavam in Thai.

The villagers at madhuramangalam firmly believe that poisonous snakes will not harm them. In the sannidhi for Sri Embaar, he is seen wearing a pendant gifted to him by Sri Ramanuja. Sri Embar is also known his mystic powers in curing any diseases related to eyes (nethra dosham) and also bless the aspiring devotees with gnanachakshu (divine inner eye), with which one can understand the real purport of vedantha philosophy and finally attain the tirvadi of supreme lord, sriman narayana. Sri embar is referred to as the "Ramanuja padhachhaaya" (shadow of the lotus feet of Bagavath ramanuja).

Madhuramangalam Emperumanar Jeeyar Mutt :

Currently at madhuramangalam, the present pontiff of the mutt, His Holiness Sree Yatiraja Narayana Ramanuja Jeeyar Swami, is running a veda / agama / divya prabhandam patashala (Ramanuja Siddantha Vardhini) in mutt, in which his aaradhana swamy, Sree Pattabiraaman is housed and worshipped.
